AMP Study: Antibody Mediated Study.

A study to investigate the usefulness of an antibody to prevent HIV among non-HIV infected adults at risk of HIV-infection. To learn more, click here.

Basic Study Qualifications
- 18-50 years of age
- HIV Negative
- Men or Transgender who have sex with men

For more detailed information & screening please contact our recruiters, Ms. April Ross or Mr. Rameses Frederick at april.dawn.ross@emory.edu or rameses.frederick@emory.edu.